The Institute for Social Accountability (TISA)

Notification of transition of the National Coordinator

7th October 2022

Summary: TISA Board of Trustees welcomes the incoming National Coordinator Diana Gichengo, bids farewell to outgoing National Coordinator Wanjiru Gikonyo.

Dear Partner,

I hope this email finds you well.

The Institute for Social Accountability Board of Trustees is pleased to welcome Diana Gichengo as TISA's incoming National Coordinator from 1st November 2022.

Diana joins us from her immediate position as Campaign Manager, Amnesty International Kenya. Diana is a seasoned governance practitioner and boasts over 10 years in the sector with experience from leading institutions in Kenya's governance sector, including the Kenya Human Rights Commission, Foundation for Pastoralist Women and GROOTS Kenya where she cut her teeth as a young intern.

Diana brings to TISA experience in diverse governance sectors and practical hands-on skills in management, programs implementation, fundraising, and communication. She is experienced in participatory approaches and results harvesting, and we are pleased to welcome her on board.

Diana takes over from Wanjiru Gikonyo the current National Coordinator and TISA founder who leave her post at the end of November 2022 after 17 years of service. Wanjiru will remain on the Board of Trustees and together with the Trustees will work with Diana to ensure a seamless transition. We thank her for her tireless service over the years.

We look forward to your continued support and engagement.

Your sincerely,

Charles Warria,
Chairperson
TISA Board of Trustees
